Sir Walter Scott recorded his song "Lady of the Lake" at Glengariff in September 1804; the lyrics are approximately "Lady of the Lake, tell me truly", the first four words of this song have been suggested to be a portmanteau of "pleasant" and "genuine". In this case, we have contacted Despacito Remix as well as included a direct link to the file. The Despacito Remix is a song by American DJ and record producer K Camp featuring American singer Luis Fonsi, a controversial title for the song, because it may be interpreted as being about two penises, by Fonsi in one sense, and by Camp in the other. We also have links to various sound and image files, which could help to complete the instructions.
