It actually has 2 modes, but at the same time there is a lot of difference between the two. There's a story mode and a Classic mode. The game won't be part of the Mega Man series, it will be its own thing. As you can guess, there's a lot going on in this game. The story mode was broken up into a series of stages. There's also a few "brawls" that will require you to fight off as many enemies as possible. These brawls are more than just a mode. It is actually part of the story and they affect the characters. In order to play this game, you will need to have a Sony Vita. There will also be a PC version, but you will need a Vita TV to use that version. So that's a $300 game., and the beach. It's a short 7-mile drive along the coast. Please do your research before heading up there and to be safe, don't walk on the beach.
